

Shackles and Cotterpins – June 1, 2005

It's just over 13 months away – the 20th start of the Vic Maui and already interest in the race is building!

July 3 has been chosen as the single start date for the 2006 fleet of ocean racers headed for Hawaii. Preparations by the joint Royal Vancouver Yacht Club and Lahaina Yacht Club Vic Maui committees have been underway since September 2004. This date will coincide with the Canada Day Celebrations so the Victoria Festivities should be well worth attending.

The Notice of Race and Appendices A & B are now available from the website at www.vicmaui.org.

The Crew Sign-Up and the Discussion Forum should soon be up and running on the website as well.

Please address any questions about the race to Paddy Thomson at paddyt@shaw.ca
